About the School

About the school

The Electric Underground Distribution School is sponsored annually by the League of Nebraska Municipalities Utilities Section and the Nebraska Rural Electric Association. This hands-on school will be held at the Don Winkelman Training Field in Sidney.

Participants will learn conductor locating, fault locating on primary and secondary conductors, terminating, and splicing. Experienced journeymen lineworkers are on hand as instructors.

Who should attend

The Electric Underground Distribution School is for all electric or lineworker/technicians who are dedicated to the electric distribution industry and would like to further their knowledge in order to keep in stride with the rapidly changing technology that is challenging both apprentice and expert technicians.

Registration and Fees

Be sure to register early because the school may be limited to the first 20 PARTICIPANTS. Participants are encouraged to preregister so meals and equipment can be arranged. The registration deadline is Aug. 16. Registration will be available at the door between 8-9 am, only if the 20 participant limit has not been met. The registration fee is $425 per person, which includes a meal and all learning materials.
